

ROSSIGNOL

2023 SPRING SKI CAMP

At Mammoth Mountain, California

APR 29—MAY 6, 2023

ROSSIGNOL
Mammoth

Welcome to the 2023 Annual Rossignol Spring Ski Camp, an experience designed for all levels of ability, from the recreational racer to the seasoned expert.

Rossignol brings to this camp a staff of world class coaches from around the country, well versed in all modern ski and race techniques, training programs and theory.

You will receive intensive individual attention in slalom and giant slalom courses, free skiing and extensive daily video tape analysis. With morning, afternoon and evening activities, you will receive an experience that will improve your level of competitive as well as recreational skiing.

Don't miss your chance to train with some of the best racers and coaches in the world—join us at Mammoth Mountain this year!

SKI TRAINING: Camp session consists of 6 days of on-snow training. Your day starts with warm-up exercises and free skiing, and then it's on to slalom or giant slalom training courses and exercises.

NOTE: The Saturday AM gate training and following lunch has been eliminated.

VIDEO ANALYSIS: Visual feedback plays a key role in improving each camp participant's skiing ability. Every camper will be filmed and analyzed daily during their stay at the camp.

AFTERNOON ACTIVITIES: In addition to intensive work in ski related areas, many afternoon activities are available, weather permitting. Opportunities include weight training, aerobics, tennis, volleyball, hiking, biking, golf & soccer. For a small fee, you will have access to the beautiful Snow Creek Athletic Club. Mountain bike rentals and paddleboards are available.

EVENING ACTIVITIES: A wide variety of evening activities are planned, including ski films, videos with technical analysis and a series of lectures on ski technique, equipment preparation, racing psychology and physical training.

SKI PREPARATION/MAINTENANCE. Rossignol technicians will be on hand to provide assistance with your equipment. Some demo skis will be available daily.
